Re: Visa v. First Data: VESI Subpoena

Dear Christine:

This letter responds to your email today and follows up on my April 21, 2005 letter and subsequent telephone messages on April 22, 2005 and April 25, 2005.

We request an immediate meet-and-confer in Delaware or, given the logistical concerns previously raised by VESI, a telephonic meeting to discuss this issue and move towards agreement. As you know, our subpoena noticed the VESI deposition for April 8, 2005. Nearly three weeks later we have yet to resolve things. We cannot afford to wait for VESI to "reply in due course" as you noted in your email today.

This issue should not require the time or resources of the federal courts. First Data is willing to take reasonable steps to meet VESI's concerns – particularly as to location. However, if we continue to encounter delay, we will take all measures necessary to compel this deposition in federal court.

Please respond with a time for a meet-and-confer. I will make every effort to accommodate any reasonable time that works for you.

Sincerely yours,

Tom Clifford
